LEASE

This lease is made on December 15, 2025

Between the Tenant (s)

DIANA LEWIS

Whose address is

840 OAK ST UNIT 4B
BUFFALO NY 14201

AND the Landlord

SAMPLE LANDLORD ONE
SAMPLE LANDLORD TWO SAMPLE LANDLORD THREE

whose address is

100 SAMPLE AVENUE
BUFFALO NEW YORK 14202

referred to as the "Landlord."
The word "Tenant" means each Tenant named above.

1. Property. The Tenant agrees to rent from the Landlord, and the Landlord agrees to lease to the Tenant, the Apartment located at 840 OAK ST UNIT 4B BUFFALO NY 14201 referred to as Apartment.

2. Term. The term of this lease is for ONE YEAR, starting on JANUARY 1, 2026 and ending on DECEMBER 31, 2026. The Landlord will not be responsible if the Landlord cannot give Tenant possession of the Apartment at the start of this Lease. However, rent will only be charged from the date on which possession is made available and if the Landlord cannot give possession within 30 days, the Tenant may cancel the Lease.

3. Rent. The tenant agrees to pay $ 18,000.00 as rent, to be paid as follows: $ 1,500.00 per month, due on the FIRST day of each month. The first payment of rent and any security deposit is due upon the signing of this Lease by the Tenant. The Tenant must pay a late charge of 10% as additional rent for each payment that is more than 4 days late. The late charge is due with the monthly rent payment. The Tenant must also pay a fee of $45.00 as additional rent for any dishonored check. All utilities, charges, fees, costs, and any other sums due under this lease shall be deemed additional rent and shall be collectible as rent for purposes of eviction and all legal remedies. This includes, without limitation, court filing fees, legal fees, eviction costs, utility charges, municipal charges, repair costs, and any sums incurred due to Tenant default.

4. Security Deposit. The Tenant will deposit ------ with the Landlord as security that the Tenant will comply with all the terms of this Lease. If the Tenant complied with the terms of this Lease, the Landlord will return this deposit within 30 days after the end of this Lease, including any extension. The Landlord may use as much of the deposit as necessary to pay for damages resulting from the Tenant's occupancy, and demand that the Tenant replace the amount of the security deposit used by the Landlord. If the Landlord sells the property, the Landlord shall transfer the deposit to the new owners for the Tenant's benefit and notify the Tenant. The Landlord will then be released of all liability to return the security deposit. The Landlord will comply the Rent Security Law (N.J.S.A. 46:8-19 et seq.). This includes depositing the security deposit in an interest-bearing account, and notifying the Tenant, in writing, of the name and address of the banking institution and the amount of the security deposit being held. Interest due the Tenant will be credited as rent on each renewal date of this Lease. The security deposit may not be used to pay last month's rent. The Landlord may keep the security deposit as last month's rent if the tenant fails to pay the last month's rent.

5. Landlord's Agent. The Landlord authorizes the following person(s) to manage the property on behalf of the Landlord: Sample Landlord One.

6. Use of Property. The Tenant may use the Apartment only as a private residence for the following persons: Diana Lewis.

The Tenant will not keep anything in the Apartment that is dangerous, flammable, explosive or might increase the danger of fire or any other hazard. No dogs, cats or other animals are allowed in this Apartment without the Landlord's prior written consent.

7. Utilities. Tenant shall be solely responsible for payment of all utilities and any related municipal or authority charges applicable to the premises, as further detailed in the Plumbing, Appliance & Utility Responsibility Rider. Utilities charges and any municipality charges shall be deemed additional rent and responsibility of the tenant to pay to the Landlord. The Landlord will pay for the following utilities:

() cold water () hot water () electricity () heat () air conditioning () gas () sewer () garbage/waste

LANDLORD PAYS NO UTILITIES, TENANT PAYS ALL UTILITIES INCLUDING COLD WATER AND SEWER AND ANY AND ALL CHARGES CHARGED BY THE MUNICIPALITY OR ANY OTHER ENTITY.

The Tenant will pay for the following utilities not included in rent

(X) cold water (X) hot water (X) electricity (X) heat (X) air conditioning (X) gas (X) sewer
(X) garbage/waste

8. Eviction. The Tenant may be evicted if the Tenant does not pay the rent when it is due, or does not comply with all the terms of this Lease and for all other causes allowed by law. If evicted, the Tenant must continue to pay the rent for the rest of the term. The tenant must also pay all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, related to any eviction and the collection of any monies owed the Landlord, along with the cost of re-entering, cleaning and repairing the Apartment. Rent received from any new tenant will reduce the amount owed the Landlord.

9. Payments by Landlord. If the Tenant fails to comply with the terms of this Lease, the Landlord may take any required action and charge the cost, including reasonable attorney fees, to the Tenant as additional rent. Failure to pay such additional rent upon demand is a violation this Lease. Any amounts paid by Landlord due to Tenant's failure to comply with the Lease or any attached rider, including costs related to plumbing, utilities, appliances, or municipal charges, shall be deemed additional rent and collectible in the same manner as rent.

10. Care of the Apartment. The Tenant has examined the Apartment, including the living quarters, all facilities, furniture and appliances, and is satisfied with its present physical condition. The Tenant agrees to maintain the Apartment and property in as good condition as it is at the start of this Lease except for ordinary wear and tear. The Tenant must pay for all repairs, replacements and damages caused by the act or neglect of the Tenant, the Tenants household members or their visitors. The tenant shall pay for all costs and labor. The Tenant will remove all the Tenant's property at the end of this Lease. Any property that is left becomes property of the Landlord and may be thrown out. The Tenant must get the Landlord's prior written consent to alter, improve, paint or wallpaper the Apartment. Alterations, additions and improvements become the Landlord's property. Tenant responsibilities include, without limitation, conditions caused by misuse, negligence, or failure to properly maintain the premises, including plumbing, utilities, septic systems, and appliances, as set forth in the Plumbing, Appliance & Utility Responsibility Rider.

11. Repairs by Landlord. If the Apartment is damaged or needs repair, the Tenant must promptly notify the Landlord, who will have a fair amount of time to make repairs. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any leaks, running fixtures, or conditions affecting utilities or systems. Failure to provide timely notice shall render Tenant responsible for resulting damages or excessive charges. If the Tenant must leave the Apartment because of damage not resulting from the Tenant's act or neglect, the Tenant will not have to pay rent until the Apartment is repaired. If the Apartment is destroyed, this Lease will end and the Tenant will pay up to the date of destruction. The Landlord is not responsible for any inconvenience or interruption of services due to repairs, improvements or for anything beyond the Landlord's control. The Tenant may not put signs or projections (such as a TV or radio antenna) in and out of the windows or exteriors of the Apartment without the Landlord's prior written consent. In the event of a dispute regarding responsibility for repairs, utilities, or charges, the written determination of Landlord's contractor, utility provider, or municipal authority shall be controlling absent clear evidence to the contrary

12. Compliance with Laws. The Tenant must comply with laws, orders, rules and requirements of governmental authorities and insurance companies that have issued or are about to issue policies covering this Apartment.

13. No Waiver, Assignments or Sublease. The Landlord does not give up any rights by accepting rent or failing to enforce any terms of this lease. The Tenant may not sublease the Apartment or assign this Lease without the Landlord's prior written consent.

14. Entry by Landlord. Upon reasonable notice, the Landlord may enter the Apartment to provide services, inspect, repair, improve or show it. Tenant must notify Landlord if Tenant will be away for 10 days or more. In case of emergency or Tenant's absence, the Landlord may enter the apartment without the Tenant's consent.

15. Quiet Enjoyment. The Tenant may live in and use the Apartment without interference subject to this lease.

16. Subordination. This Lease and the Tenant's rights are subject and subordinate to present and future mortgages on the premises that include the apartment. The Landlord may execute any papers on the Tenant's behalf and the Tenant's attorney in fact to accomplish this.

17. Injury or Damage. The Tenant will be responsible for any injury or damage caused by the act or neglect of the Tenant, the Tenant's household members or their visitors. The Landlord is not responsible for any injury or damage unless due to the negligence or improper conduct of the Landlord.

18. Renewals and Changes in Lease. The Landlord may offer the Tenant a new Lease to take effect at the end of this Lease. The new Lease may include reasonable changes. The Tenant will be notified of any proposed new Lease at least sixty (60) days before the end of the present Lease. If no changes are made, the Tenant may continue to rent the Apartment on a month-to-month basis (with the rest of the Lease remaining the same). In either case, the Tenant must notify the Landlord of the Tenant's decision to stay or leave at least thirty (30) days before the end of the term. Otherwise, the Tenant will be responsible under the terms of the new Lease.

19. Notices. All notices provided by this lease must be written and delivered personally or by certified mail, return receipt requested. Notices to the Landlord may be sent to the Landlord's Agent.

20. Rules. The Tenant will not interfere with the quiet enjoyment of any other tenant. The Tenant will comply with all the rules that are attached in this Lease and upon reasonable notice accept reasonable changes in such rules changed by the Landlord. The Tenant will likewise be responsible for the acts of the Tenant's household members and visitors.

21. Validity of Lease. If a clause or provision of the Lease is legally invalid, the rest of this Lease remains in effect.

22. Entire Lease. All promises the Landlord has made are contained in this written Lease. The Lease can only be changed by an agreement in writing by both the Tenant and the Landlord. The Landlord, each Tenant and all who lawfully succeed to their rights and responsibilities are bound by this Lease.

Tenant acknowledges and agrees to the Plumbing, Appliance & Utility Responsibility Rider attached hereto, which is incorporated by reference and made a material part of this Lease.

23. Lead Paint Disclosure. The Landlord, Tenant and Agent (if any), have signed the "Disclosure to Tenants" form for lease of residential property (if the housing was built before 1978). For all such above leases the Tenant has also been provided with a copy of the EPA pamphlet, "Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home," 41 U.S.C. 485 2d; 24 C.F.R. 745.107.

24. Signatures. The Landlord and the Tenant Agree to the terms of this Lease. If this Lease is made by a corporation, it is proper corporate and its corporate seal is affixed.

ADDENDUM TO LEASE

1. The Landlord does not provide the tenants with insurance to cover his/her personal property and against criminal acts; the tenants may obtain such insurance on his/her own.

2. If rental payment and additional amounts due, as a result of delay, are late for a period of five days or greater, the Landlord reserves the right to terminate this lease agreement without any liability to himself or his agent or agents. Such terminations shall become effective by the Landlord's written notice to the tenants by certified mail, return receipt requested, by fax, via E-mail, or hand delivery to tenants.

3. Occupancy by more tenants than named on this lease shall be considered a violation of this lease and the Landlord reserves the right to terminate this lease agreement without any liability to himself or his agent or agents. Such terminations shall become effective by the Landlord's written notice to the tenants by certified mail, return receipt requested, by fax, via E-mail, or hand delivery to tenants.

4. The tenant has to clean their yard, cut the grass, remove the snow, and take out their own garbage.

5. No washing machine or dryer is allowed on the premises.

6. If either the tenant or the landlord for any legal reason or purpose must terminate the tenancy before the lease is expired, each must give the other 30 days notice prior to such termination, except , that if, for any legal reason, such 30 day notice is impossible to deliver, then such notice will not be required.

7. The tenant shall have a 3 day attorney review period for this lease. That means the tenant may review this lease with an attorney for a period of three days after delivery of the lease, before signing the lease.

8. No pets are allowed on the premises.

9. The apartment or house must be returned in the same condition as it was when it was first rented. The security deposit will be returned after an inspection of the premises is made to determine whether and how much damage there is to the premises. Any costs for repair for damage done to the premises that is caused by either the tenant's negligent or intentional acts will be taken out of the security money. Any cost for cleanup of garbage or property left by the tenants will be taken out of the security money. If there is money left over after repairs and/or cleanup, such money will be returned to the tenant. Security deposit cannot be used to pay last month's rent.

10. Move-Out Cleaning Requirement. Upon vacating the premises for any reason, Tenant shall return the apartment or house in a professionally cleaned condition. Tenant must hire a licensed, professional cleaning company to perform a thorough move-out cleaning of the entire premises, including all rooms, bathrooms, kitchen (including appliances, cabinets, and fixtures), floors, walls, windows, and any outdoor areas within Tenant's control. Tenant must provide Landlord with a copy of the receipt or invoice from the licensed professional cleaning company, showing the company name, license or registration information, date of service, and address of the premises cleaned, within five (5) days of vacating the premises. If Tenant fails to hire a licensed professional cleaning company, fails to have the premises professionally cleaned to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction, or fails to provide proof of such cleaning as described above, Landlord shall have the right to arrange for professional cleaning at Tenant's expense. The cost of such cleaning shall be charged to Tenant as additional rent and may be deducted from the security deposit. Tenant's obligation under this clause is separate from and in addition to Tenant's general obligation to return the premises in good condition under this Lease. Failure to comply with this clause constitutes a material violation of this Lease.

11. Tenant is not allowed to paint the apartment without Landlord's permission. Only white or off-white colors are permissible. If the unit is found to be in violation by the State of Municipality or other authority for painting, tenant will paint the apartment at tenant's own cost, only in white or off-white. If the Landlord for any reason must bear the cost of painting such cost will be charged to the tenant and collected as additional rent.

12. Tenant must reimburse Landlord for the cost of bed bug extermination. The cost of which will be collected as additional rent. Extermination of ants and spiders will not be considered part of the Landlord's responsibility and all expenses for such a job will be done at the Tenant's expense.

13. Tenant acknowledges and agrees to the terms of the Plumbing & Appliance Responsibility Rider attached hereto and incorporated by reference as a material part of this Lease.

14. Tenant must place all garbage outside in the garbage receptacle. Tenant may not leave garbage in the hallways. Tenant may not throw garbage out the windows or out the doors or toss it in any many manner towards the area of the garbage receptacles. Tenant must go outside and place the garbage into the garbage receptacle.

15. Tenant is responsible for payment of any tickets issued by the municipality for violations outside the home within their control such as garbage, failure to remove snow, failure to cut grass and anything and everything within their control.

16. Tenant shall not build or maintain a pool on the property if the Landlord pays for the cold water and sewer charges. Suppose the Tenant has built or maintained a pool on their property. In that case, the Landlord shall collect any expenses from the tenant related to water and sewer charges and money for any damages incurred on the property.

(Tenant Initial Required — One-Family Home, New Jersey)

This Rider is attached to and made part of the Lease Agreement and constitutes a material condition of the Lease.

Tenant(s): DIANA LEWIS

Address: 840 OAK ST UNIT 4B BUFFALO NY 14201

Landlord(s): SAMPLE LANDLORD ONE, SAMPLE LANDLORD TWO, SAMPLE LANDLORD THREE

Lease start date: January 1, 2026

By initialing each section and signing below, Tenant acknowledges, understands, and agrees to the following:

1. Plumbing, Drains, and Septic System — Tenant Responsibility

Tenant Initials: _____

Tenant shall be solely responsible for the proper use, care, and maintenance of all plumbing fixtures, drains, sewer lines, and septic systems (if applicable).

Any blockage, backup, overflow, or service requirement—including but not limited to drain snaking, hydro-jetting, line clearing, or septic pumping—shall be the sole financial responsibility of Tenant if caused in whole or in part by Tenant misuse, negligence, improper disposal, or failure to follow proper usage guidelines.

Improper use includes, but is not limited to: food waste, grease, oils or fats, coffee grounds, paper towels, wipes (including those labeled “flushable”), feminine hygiene products, diapers, toilet paper, excessive cleaning products, chemicals, or any foreign objects.

2. Service Calls and Cost Recovery

Tenant Initials: _____

If a contractor or service provider determines that a plumbing or septic issue was caused by Tenant misuse, neglect, or improper use, Tenant shall be responsible for 100% of all costs, including diagnostics, labor, materials, pumping, repairs, and any resulting damage.

Any amounts paid by Landlord shall be reimbursed by Tenant upon demand and shall be deemed additional rent, collectible in the same manner as rent under the Lease.

3. Appliances — Tenant Assumes All Responsibility

Tenant Initials: _____

Any appliances provided with the premises are provided as a courtesy and for Tenant convenience only and are accepted by Tenant in their existing condition.

To the fullest extent permitted under New Jersey law, Tenant shall be solely responsible for all maintenance, servicing, repair, and replacement of all appliances provided to the premises, whether existing at the commencement of the Lease or provided thereafter.

Landlord shall have no obligation to repair or replace any appliance unless expressly required by law or agreed to in writing.

4. Utilities & Municipal Charges — Tenant Responsibility (One-Family Home)

Tenant Initials: _____

Tenant acknowledges that the premises is a one-family home and agrees that Tenant shall be solely responsible for all utilities, including but not limited to water, sewer, garbage, electricity, gas, heating fuel, and any related municipal, authority, or service provider charges.

Tenant shall also be responsible for any municipal fees, penalties, citations, or violations related to utilities or conditions within Tenant's control.

5. Duty to Report Leaks or Utility Issues

Tenant Initials: _____

Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any known or suspected leaks, running fixtures, plumbing malfunctions, or utility issues. Failure to timely report such conditions shall constitute Tenant negligence.

Tenant shall be financially responsible for utility charges resulting from Tenant's failure to report or mitigate known issues.

6. Utility Usage Baseline; Excessive Consumption

Tenant Initials: _____

Tenant acknowledges that utility usage at the premises is expected to remain within a reasonable and customary range based on historical usage for the property or comparable one-family residential properties, taking into account seasonal variations.

Landlord may establish a utility usage baseline using prior billing records, comparable properties, or utility provider data. If Tenant's usage materially exceeds such baseline and such excess usage is attributable to Tenant actions, negligence, misuse, or failure to report leaks or malfunctions, Tenant shall be solely responsible for all excess utility charges incurred.

Excessive usage includes, but is not limited to, continuous running water, failure to report leaks, damaged or tampered fixtures, excessive water use, or failure to take reasonable steps to mitigate known utility issues.

Any excess charges paid by Landlord shall be reimbursed by Tenant upon demand and shall be deemed additional rent.

7. Quarterly Utility & Municipal Billing

Tenant Initials: _____

Tenant agrees that water, sewer, garbage, and any related municipal charges or violations shall be billed quarterly based on actual usage, invoices, or assessments received. Any such amounts paid by Landlord shall be reimbursed by Tenant upon demand and deemed additional rent.

8. Municipal Violations Related to Misuse or Failure to Maintain

Tenant Initials: _____

Tenant shall be responsible for payment of any municipal violations, fines, penalties, or assessments incurred due to Tenant's misuse of the property or failure to maintain areas within Tenant's control, including but not limited to:

- Failure to separate recyclables
- Improper garbage disposal
- Failure to cut grass or maintain yard
- Failure to remove snow or ice
- Any other violations arising from Tenant's acts or omissions

Such costs shall be reimbursed to Landlord and deemed additional rent.

9. Determination of Responsibility

Tenant Initials: _____

In the event of a dispute regarding the cause of any plumbing, appliance, utility, or municipal issue, the written opinion of Landlord's contractor, utility provider, or municipal authority shall be controlling absent clear evidence to the contrary.

Acknowledgment

Tenant acknowledges that failure to comply with this Rider constitutes a material violation of the Lease and may result in charges, enforcement action, or lease termination as permitted by law.
